

Gifted with Forgiveness

New Life by the Gospel of Grace

This is usually the first, the biggest and the most desperately needed gift of all—apart from the never-ending wonder of discovering that Jesus is alive and well, Risen from the dead and Ruler of the universe. You can't really top that one! But being forgiven comes close.

And Peter said to them, "Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. Acts 2:38 ESV

Everyone Needs This

At least in practical terms, we have to be forgiven—truly and thoroughly forgiven—or we can't live with ourselves. The burden is simply too great upon our conscience: of guilt, shame, self-blame, reproach, inward accusation, and fear of eventual and eternal punishment. What are we leaving out? How the unrelenting burden of remembered sins hardens our hearts. The only way to get a fresh start is either a lobotomy or to have our slates wiped clean.

God chose to forgive us. This way (unlike the lobotomy method) we have the opportunity to learn from our mistakes. We summoned the faith courage to name sin as sin, making no excuse for ourselves, but admitting the truth about our moral failure instead. We have gone as beggars to God, hoping against hope that there might be just enough mercy for us to get by. Perhaps He can find it in His heart to forgive us just this once.

Then comes the astonishing revelation of grace: We will not be punished for our sins; just the opposite is happening. A great love is being revealed to us in spite of them! It is a love so great and a work so thorough that all of our sins—past, present and future—have been atoned for by the Blood of Christ. God has not only cleared our past record of wrongs, He stands ready to wash us clean from any new sin we are willing to confess and forsake.

Forgiveness Clears the Way to Heaven

The forgiveness of our sins and our future resurrection to heaven go hand in hand. Because our sins are forgiven, because Jesus paid the death penalty that we deserved, we can live with confidence that we will make it home to heaven, living eternally with the One who died to save us. Forgiveness clears the way for us to enter our eternal inheritance in heaven; faith-confidence enables us to take joy in our bliss-filled future even now.

The forgiveness of our sins and the gift of new life through the Holy Spirit also go hand in hand. Because we are forgiven, because we have asked to be separated from our sins, God has placed His Spirit within us so that we can be "resurrected" into a new life of grace right now. Upheld by His Spirit, we can live with freshness like little children once again, trusting in and relying upon the One who loved us enough to die for us. Forgiveness clears the way for us to enter our God-given inheritance on earth; faith-confidence enables us to take peace and joy that we can start fresh with God in any moment down here.

Gifted with Glorification Glorification is God going "over the top." All we really needed Him to do was save us from our earthly hells that bound us and from the hell we were inevitably earning by our accumulated sins. Just let us escape either one of those hells and God could have our praises into eternity! So He did; and so we shall. And still there is more...
